

Examination Questions in Propedeutics in Internal Medicine

- 1 a Basic physical examining methods: use of different examination techniques (inspection, auscultation, percussion, palpation)
b Principles of case history, the contact with patients of various age groups
- 2 a General examination of a patient - status of consciousness, quantity and quality; meningeal signs b Main parts of the case history and their content
- 3 a General examination of a patient- position and mobility, standing and gait
b Dyspnoe
- 4 a General examination of a patient- body shape (habitus), nutritional status
b Basic symptoms of heart diseases
- 5 a General examination of a patient - status of hydration, edemas b Basic symptoms of diseases of esophagus, stomach and intestine
- 6 a General examination of a patient - skin
b Chest pain
- 7 a General examination of a patient - changes of skin and mucosa color
b Auxiliary examination methods in kidney and urinary tract diseases
- 8 a Breathing and its disorders. Assessment and evaluation of body temperature
b Abdominal pain
- 9 a Assessment of voice, speech and hearing; important pathological changes in these areas
b Basic symptoms of diseases of liver, biliary system and pancreas
- 10 a Examination of the skull, nose and ears, assessment of facial innervation, important pathological changes in these regions
b Cough
- 11 a Physical (somatic) examination and important pathological changes - eyes
b Basic symptoms of diseases of the peripheral arteries and veins
- 12 a Physical (somatic) examination and important pathological changes - oral cavity b General symptoms of internal diseases - tiredness, anorexia, weight loss
- 13 a Physical (somatic) examination of the neck b Basic laboratory tests of blood, urine; oral glucose tolerance test
- 14 a Examination of pulse and blood pressure, physiological values
b Auxiliary examination methods in gastrointestinal diseases
- 15 a Physical (somatic) examination of the thorax - cardiologist's view
b Basic symptoms of kidneys and urinary tract diseases
- 16 a Auscultation of the heart
b Basic symptoms of diseases of the locomotor system

- 17 a Examination of the circulatory system b Disorders of swallowing, nausea, vomiting

- 18 a Physical (somatic) examination of the thorax - pneumologist's view; basic pulmonary syndromes
b Medical documentation: parts and forms; rules for handling and protection of personal data

- 19 a Physical (somatic) examination and symptoms of pleural disease. Pneumothorax and fluidothorax
b Technique of blood and blood derivatives transfusion; assessment of blood groups

- 20 a Overview of the examination of the thorax; examination of the breasts and axilla b Electrophysiological diagnostic methods in internal medicine

- 21 a Physical (somatic) examination of the abdomen
b Basic rules for collection and processing of biological samples

- 22 a Physical (somatic) examination of the liver, biliary system and spleen; ascites
b Auxiliary examination methods in diseases of lungs, pleura and mediastinum

- 23 a Physical (somatic) examination of kidneys and urinary tract b Main symptoms of pulmonary diseases

- 24 a Physical (somatic) examination of the locomotor system
b Overview of imaging methods in internal medicine

- 25 a Physical (somatic) examination of lower extremities
b Auxiliary examination methods in heart diseases